

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

NELSON J. DEL ROSARIO,

Petitioner,

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Respondent.

Civil No. 08-2089 (JAF)

(Crim. No. 00-672)

ORDER

Petitioner, Nelson J. del Rosario, brings this pro-se petition for relief from a federal conviction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255. Docket Nos. 2, 6. Respondent, the United States of America, opposes, Docket No. 5; Petitioner replies, Docket No. 9.

Respondent notes that Petitioner has previously filed a § 2255 petition in this court and that we cannot entertain the instant petition without prior certification from the court of appeals. Docket No. 5. Before filing a successive § 2255 petition, a petitioner must file a motion in the court of appeals to authorize the district court to consider the second petition. 28 U.S.C. §§ 2244(b)(3), 2255(h).

Petitioner previously filed a § 2255 petition on January 26, 2006. Case No. 06-1110, Docket No. 1. We dismissed that petition on April 5, 2006. Case No. 06-1110, Docket Nos. 10, 11. Petitioner then filed the present § 2255 petition on September 23, 2008. Docket No. 2. We have no record of prior certification from the First Circuit authorizing this petition.

-2-

Accordingly, we hereby DENY Petitioner's § 2255 motion, Docket Nos. 2, 6. Pursuant to Rule 4(b) of the Rules Governing § 2255 Proceedings, we summarily DISMISS this petition, because it is plain from the record that Petitioner is entitled to no relief.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 1st day of April, 2009.
